RECORDING INFORMATION

Diamonds and Coal is the band's first studio release in 6 years. The first 1000 editions come in high quality digipack format, with the first 500 of these being signed by the band.

COMMENTS & REVIEWS

Marc Published on: 4 Oct 2007

I do not own any Man cds, but it is a band that I got a chance, a number of times, to sample some of their music on radio. They are known for their psych/prog/jam songs, pretty near bands like Caravan or Uriah Heep to name a few.

On Diamonds and Coal we get some pretty varied stuff from a group of talented musicians that can still be creative and dynamic, even though their teenage years are distant memories. There is in fact a seventies feel to the album, but not in a retro way, some of the tracks sounding very actual.

I like this album, the kind of stuff that will find it's way to my car cd player. You can get a good example of the album if you go to their MySpace site (the link is on this page). I recommend you do so. Fun stuff!!
