

SUPPORT | FAQ | VIEW CART | YOUR ACCOUNT | NEWSLETTER | LOG OUT

VIDEO LESSONS

SONG TABS

JAM TRACKS

QuickSEARCH

Keyword (e.g., topic, title, artist)

ADVANCED SEARCH

BROWSE BY STYLE

Pop
Rock
Alternative
Hard Rock/Metal
Country
Blues
Folk
Classical
Jazz
Standards

BROWSE INSTRUCTORS

ROBERT CRAY COLLECTION DUE OUT MAY 5

Posted by Michael Mueller on March 3, 2009 at 3:33 PM

With an incredibly soulful voice and one of the best modern blues guitar sounds, Robert Cray helped jump-start the contemporary blues boom of the Eighties that still holds sway to this day. His 1986 breakthrough album Smoking Gun won him a Grammy in the U.S., and Fender honored him with the Robert Cray Signature Model Stratocaster.

The Robert Cray Collection DVD, with its interviews, music videos, and concert footage, is a must-own for blues enthusiasts.

Track Listing:

Smoking Gun
 Nothin' But a Woman
 Right Next Door
 I Guess I Showed Her
 Don't Be Afraid of the Dark
 Acting This Way
 Night Patrol
 The Forecast (Calls for Pain)
 Consequences

SEND TO FRIEND | BACK TO BLOG HOME

COMMENTS Add Comment