

PENDRAGON/The History (Metal Mind Productions)

This to me was a boring band in the vein of Queensryche. To me the songs were not strong and were quite boring. The band can play, but the songs to my ears were flat and the vocals didn't do much for me. If you like bands like Queensryche, you might some value. This was like a best of as it spans songs from 1984 to 2000.
