WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT HE'S MY BROTHER SHE'S MY SISTER

"Delightfully Original"
—INDIESHUFFLE

"Rising stars..."
—BROOKLYN VEGAN

"Forward thinking folkies forging new ground."
—NEW TIMES

"They make debauchery and estrangement so glamorous. The songs are as catchy as a radio pop jam, but throw off the trappings of plastic pop and wrap you in fur, folk, and the last drops of moonlight"
—LA RECORD

"It's always a home run when a band is able to generate such bouncy hipster-folk, and this The Mamas and The Papas-meets-Timbuk 3-sounding set offers a fine selection. Rocking harmonicas, proto-punk wailing, hippie clothes, fun drums, easy riffs... it's a redux of the personality that made the Woodstock era so much fun for Hollywood directors"
—METRO MIX NEW YORK

RAND FOSTER from FINGERPRINTS in long beach, ca say this:

They make debauchery and estrangement so glamorous. The songs are as catchy as a radio pop jam, but throw off the trappings of plastic pop and wrap you in fur, folk, and the last drops of moonlight "Like a band out of time, HMB SMS, straddles the breadth of California's rich musical heritage, yet does it while maintaining a fresh shamble to their roll; think shouted choruses, a tap-danced percussion solo, some classic country elements, alongside a nod to the chaos of the New, New Folk Revival, the SF sound, and the California Canyon sound and you're in the right time-zone. Theirs are a record collection's worth of influences, yet the result is equal parts fresh and familiar.

Figuring it qualified as long-range planning, I tried to book them on the main stage of my end of summer music fest; because a year from now everyone is going to be talking about them, and we would have gotten there first. I believe these guys are worth taking a chance on, so please give them a listen.
