

ROCK 'N' ROLL PALACE

Live At The Rock 'N' Roll Palace Volume 2

(MVD)

By: Paul Autry

I don't know if you would call these "vintage" performances or not. But, it's definitely a nice slab of rock 'n' roll history for those of you who appreciate early rock 'n' roll music. Sixteen performances by artists such as Johnny Thunder, The Crickets, Tommy Sands, The Platters, Johnny Tillotson, The Diamonds, Bobby Vee and Ace Cannon, all recorded at the Rock 'N' Roll Palace in Orlando, Florida. Some of you old timers may remember some of these tunes. "That'll Be The Day" and "Peggy Sue" by The Crickets. "The Beat Goes On" by Tommy Sands or how about "Tuff" by Ace Canon...you remember that one, don't you? The stuff on this disc was way before my time and I don't really have an interest in it. However, I was rather fond of Johnny Thunder's "Suzi Q" and "Loop De Loop." It's got a 60 minute running time and the main program is pretty much all you get. But, if you happen to have a taste for this music, it should be worth it for you.

<http://www.MVDvisual.com>

http://ballbusterhardmusic.com/hard\_vision/052007.html#live\_at\_the\_rock\_n\_roll\_palace