Volume 31/Number 31

December 1, 2007

NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND/Greatest Hits Live: It's got "Mr. Bojangles", but after that, you might get arguments from casual fans. Certainly, it's the casino version of their hits and until something comes along that's better than watching paint dry, this is the best look going at this pre-Americanana crew that's gone from being good natured hippies that were trying hard to elder statesmen in only 40 short years. There must have been a good reason they've lasted this long. Also, where else are you going to get a gander at Stella Parton these days. She's on board here too.
