The always insightful Immortal Technique took some time out for this sit down with Out Da Box Tv at Irving Plaza recently. In the clip, the Harlem emcee discusses some projects he's working on (it's more than music) an orphanage in Afghanistan he helped to build, his documentary, The Revolution of Immortal Technique, and his upcoming album The Middle Passage. Tech also goes on to speak about humbling experiences in his life, his trip to Haiti, and his advice to the people of the U.S. struggling through our current economic state. The clip is over 12 minutes long, so you're gonna have to sit down with this one, but it's well worth your time.
