CRYPTIC COLLECTIBLES

THE ADDAMS FAMILY ACTION FIGURES

(Playmates Toys, 1992)

The success of 1991's The Addams Family film led to a 1992-93 Saturday morning animated series based on cartoonist Charles Addams' characters. Playmates released these 4 1/2-inch-tall figures of Gomez, Morticia, Uncle Fester, Lurch, Pugsley and Granny from the show. Each one came with accessories (complete with miniature Thing) and an action feature (for example, levers released "creepy vines" from Morticia's sleeves). Figures of Wednesday and Cousin Itt were also planned, but never produced. Still-carded figures go for $10 to $20 apiece on eBay.
