

<http://rockandrollazine.blogspot.com/2009/12/sinner-jump-gun-collection.html>

Thursday, December 10, 2009

Sinner - Jump The Gun - The Collection

Metal Fighter Records

Mat Sinner's original band Sinner has issued a collection of hits from their Nuclear Blast catalog. You all know Mat from Primal Fear but you might've not yet sampled some of his work with Sinner. You're not going to get the vocal pyrotechnic display like you would with Primal Fear. Mat's got a lower, deeper vocal, with limited range. Sinner in years has from evolved from a power metal outfit into a straight forward hard rock band. Jump The Gun -The Collection culls a dozen tracks from the albums; The Nature Of Evil, The End Of Sanctuary and There Will Be Execution.

These albums were released from the years 1998 to 2003 with obviously little fanfare on this side of the Atlantic. Jump The Gun - The Collection features some great work by the current Sinner. This compilation is a great way to sample what this band is about and not pay a lot of dough doing it. Some of the choice cuts on the album are; "Jump The Gun," "Troublemaker," "God Raises The Dead," "Dairy Of Evil" and "Locked And Loaded." It's strange that Nuclear Blast didn't put together this compilation and that it was another label who picked up the rights and put this album together. The only complaint is the lack of liners but I guess that's part of savings that are passed onto the fans? If you enjoy Thin Lizzy, Accept and the like then you might want to add some Sinner to your collection. Jump The Gun -The Collection would be a good place to start.

The Verdict: A snapshot of what Sinner is today. Not definitive, but enjoyable none the less.

<http://www.matsinner.com/frames.htm>

Posted by R. Mosqueda at 10:26 PM

Labels: Reviews