Rock to Watch

Those who have spent much time hereabouts know that there's a special place in my heart for rock recordings that contain both aural and visual elements. In other words, I like my rock where I can see it.

There have been so many noteworthy DVD releases recently, it has been hard (albeit fun) to keep up.

Here, (as Rod Serling used to say as he lured us into The Twilight Zone) submitted for your approval, are a half dozen of my top picks of rock to watch at a home theater near you.
