Ana Popovic

"Ana!" DVD
(Ruf Records)
by Paul Autry

This is the first time that I've been exposed to what Ana Popovic has to offer and I'm totally diggin' on it. So much, in fact, that I started tellin' people about her before I even finished watching this release...and there's only twelve songs on here. So, that should tell you something. Ana commands the stage with confidence. She has the look and attitude of a rock 'n' roll star. But, her musical style is more in line with the blues. Not the traditional blues, mind you. It's more of a modern sound. But, it's fresh and exciting. In fact, as I'm sitting here typing this up, her DVD is spinnin' in my player and I can feel the vibe that's flowin' out of my television set...and, yes, I'm lovin' every minute of it.

The main program is a live performance. As I mentioned above, there's only twelve songs on here. But, she makes everyone count and her performance is of the highest quality. There's also an acoustic performance which looks to be on the same stage as the live show...minus the audience...which is absolutely amazing. She has a powerful voice and proof of that can best be seen...or heard...in the video of her in Amsterdam. It's just Ana and her guitar...and she's standing on what looks to be a bridge. This clip alone will give you a good idea of the amount of talent this woman has. There's also an interview featured here, which I haven't gotten through yet because, truth be told, when I throw this disc into the player, I wanna watch the live show because I just can't seem to get enough. It's a great DVD and I hope each and every one of you who are reading this decides to check it out. You won't be disappointed.
