Hard Core Logo (VSC)

One thing that makes HARD CORE LOGO so great is how hxc it is (of course)! What I mean is, while this seems to inhabit “This Is Spinal Tap” material in terms of its being a faux rockumentary, it’s a different sort of film at the same time. I mean besides the fact that HARD CORE LOGO is about a punk band and TIST is about a metal band. HARD CORE LOGO is, indeed, a faux rock doc, but I’d not call it a mockumentary, at least not purely. There’s more seriousness about what the film’s about in HARD CORE LOGO. Sure, it’s a send up of rock dox but, more than that, it’s a satire of group dynamics in underground music culture. This isn’t about making fun so much as it’s about insight. Using a fictional band in a faux doc setting gives us realism mixed with a real examination about how interpersonal relationships mix (or don’t) in a band that’s on its way up (maybe). There’s a more serious, thoughtful tone behind HARD CORE LOGO than TIST. Not to say you won’t find amusement here. But you’ll find food for thought, too. [NOTE: This special metal case edition also includes HARD CORE LOGO 2!]
