

HARDCORE LOGO 1&2 DVD Still a great fake punk doc about a Canadian punk band called HARDCORE LOGO who mixes between SOCIAL DISTORTION / DOA with Bruce Willis on vocals. Well HCL 1# feature the band reforming and hitting the road again with the camera crew filming all the tour mayhem. Just think Spinal Tap meeting Another State of Mind but ALL FAKE. Singer Joe Dick have that smart ass 80's punk singer feel down pack. While HCL 2# take you on another GERMS filled rock n roll tour with more chaos and craziness with a new female singer who sings for the band DIE MANNEGUIN. The new female singer swears she is possessed by the ghost of Joe Dick. Not as good as 1# but still worth checking out. As the film crew follow them around, to see if she's faking it all or the real thing. DIE MANNEGUIN actually reminds me of bit and pieces of actually bands I really know, but not tell. And this tin box version contains both movies. Still 2 pretty good movies with a lot of funny scenes, even some most touring bands can relate to. (EX+) PUNK VIDEO SERVICE
