THE SMITHS

This documentary covers the full musical history of The Smiths, with a 90 minute running time it features rare musical performances, video clips, t.v. appearances, band interviews, and interviews with producers, well know journalists, & Smiths road crew. The DVD also features a special features section which boasts to have "The Hardest Smith's Trivia Quiz Ever", and I must admit, it lived up to it's name and was, in fact, the hardest Smiths games EVER.

I would recommend this DVD for the hardcore Smith's fan, I do admit, even as a huge Smith's fan, this DVD was a little hard to watch, it kind of seemed as though the first 10 minutes just got replayed over and over. If you aren't a fanatic this DVD will most likely bore you simply because it is SO in depth, it's not a DVD for fun, to see the lighter side of the band, or some of their videos, this is, an ORAL history, kind of like a lesson in school, you may be interested but it's just SO boring, no pizzazz. It's a really awesome DVD, I just think it should have had a little less talk and a lot more rock.
