

NICK BRANDON'S MUSIC BEAT

NEW AND IN REVIEW

AC/DC
Classic Album Review: Back in Black
 (Chrome Dreams)
 Find out how the U.K. music press viewed one of the greatest rock 'n' roll bands after it recovered from losing its front man.

ABBA
Number Ones
 (UME)
 Fans of VH1 Classic's airing of vintage — often cheesy — music videos will love 19 cuts from the Swedish sensation.

David Bowie
Under Review: 1976-1979 The Berlin Trilogy
 (Chrome Dreams)
 This is undoubtedly the most creative phase of Bowie's career. See what the critics thought of "Low," "Heroes" and "Lodger."

Europe
The Final Countdown Tour Live in Sweden 1988
 (MVD)
 Hear and see the famous theme of the Detroit Pistons live by the Swedish one-hit wonder that created it.

Green Day
Under Review: The Middle Years 1995-2000
 (Chrome Dreams)
 The band went from punky kids to bona fide pop stars, and this review examines when Green Day had the time of its life making hits.

The Golden Girls
Season Six
 (Buena Vista Home Video)
 Two words: Bea Arthur. That's all you need to hear to pick up one of the later seasons of your favorite old chicks.

Iron Maiden
Death on the Road
 (Sanctuary)
 Captured live on its 2003 "Dance of Death" outing — not to be confused with its most recent tour — this has been released for the third time..

The Johnny Carson Show
 (Shout! Factory)
 Before being crowned the king of late night, Johnny hosted a short-lived show on CBS from 1955-56; 10 episodes are here.

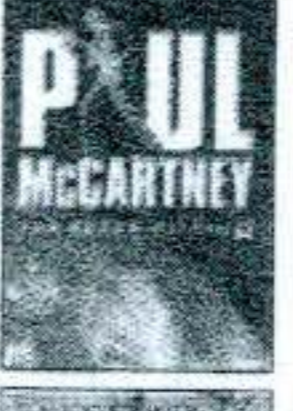

Joy Division
Under Review
 (Chrome Dreams)
 The most emotional of all the "Under Review" DVDs profiles the late Ian Curtis and the genius of Joy Division.

"Kenny vs. Spenny," Season One
 (VSC)
 Two Canadian roommates pull the wackiest of pranks on each other, usually resulting in Spenny's humiliation.

Led Zeppelin
The Origin of the Species
 (Chrome Dreams)
 This is the deep background of how Led Zeppelin's members rocketed out with its one-two punch of I and II.

Paul McCartney
The Space Within (A&E)
 The "cute" Beatle is captured on his '05 tour — arguably the best of his solo career — with heaps of Beatles and Wings favorites.

Metallica
The Videos 1989-2004
 (Warner Bros.)
 From "One" to "Enter Sandman," Metallica's videos were a vital part of '90's pop culture: they're all here.

"Mystery Science Theater 3000" Volume 10
 (Rhino)
 Aliens and bizarre creatures, ripping on classic movies — now that's entertainment! MSC 3000 is just that.

Nirvana
Classic Album Review
 (Chrome Dreams)
 The 1994 work that followed the landmark Nevermind goes under the microscope; features rare footage of the band.

The Police
Everyone Stares: The Police Inside and Out
 (UME)
 A fascinating collection of real footage from drummer Stewart Copeland documents the rise — and demise — of The Police.

Porcupine Tree
Arriving Somewhere ...
 (Snapper)
 Live in Chicago on 2005's tour for Deadwing — that year's best record — the underrated U.K. prog act is dazzling live.

The Rolling Stones
Under Review 1962-1966
 (Chrome Dreams)
 The roots of the Stones — the Brian Jones era — are examined by some of the most respected names in the U.K. press.

Slipknot
Volunteered
 (Roadrunner)
 An irate masked band in

The Who's Who (UME)
 For updated cuts and

U2
Zoo TV
 (Island)
 The U2 (tour) This is t

New York Story
 (1995/1)
 A we New Or member

Contact freelance NickBrandon@

SOUND Interscope

As the music industry after the MP3, labels content ways to sell products and interesting than c
 But the demise of (DVDs has certainly reas an art form and col
 Universal label Int on the idea, recently r from, commercially sp rent acts in concert d
 It may not be the a challenges, but, hey, p fun with the following
 • A.F.I., I Heard a V
 "Miss Murder" punk/ Calif., in '06.
 • Black Eyed Peas, Fergie's solo outing exp embarked on its succe
 • Sheryl Crow, Wild good — or relevant — many hits are displaye
 • The Pussycat Do Carmen Electra-found with the hit "Don't Ch and cabaret big produ
 • Gwen Stefani, Ho is far removed both c her days fronting No I Stefani live in Anaher year for the "Hollabacl
 For more, visit www