

Cady McClain

Voted one of "Daytime's Most Beautiful Women," Cady McClain is releasing a recording, BlueGlitterFish. In the industry since age eight and winner of two Emmys, McClain currently stars as Dixie on All My Children. A Southern California native, she now splits her time between New York City and New Orleans, where she owns and often performs at Mimi's in the Marigny, a neighborhood tapas bar. Her first CD, BlueGlitterFish is an eclectic mix of sounds produced by George Petit. For full background and information, visit www.cadymcclain.com or contact Janell Vantrease at Ken Sunshine Consultants, 212-691-2800.

American Idol finalist Carmen Rasmusen and syndicated radio show host Buck McCoy will host the 2006 New Music Weekly Awards November 18 at the Avalon in Hollywood. Rasmusen most recently completed the limited series American Idol Rewind. McCoy is best known for his appearance on NBC's Performing As.

For tickets or more information about The 4th Annual New Music Weekly Awards, phone 310-325-9997, 323-658-7749 or e-mail staff@newmusicweekly.com.

Coming to DVD November 14 is Family Guy Volume Four. This new release picks up in the second half of the fourth season, featuring a fresh collection of outrageous, sometimes offensive but always hilarious storylines and songs by Ron Jones and Walter Murphy. Highlights include Peter starting his own television channel "PTV" and the "National Association for the Advancement of Fat People" (NAAFP), Brian going back to college, and more. In all, there are 14 episodes in a three-disc set with optional censored audio tracks and audio commentary for every episode from creator and star Seth MacFarlane. For more information, go online and log on to www.foxhome.com.

Family Guy

Female impersonator Steven Brinberg is bringing his cabaret show, Simply Barbra: The New Farewell Tour, to The Gardenia in Hollywood (November 9) and The Empire Plush Room (November 14-19) in San Francisco. Often personally invited to sing with symphony orchestras by Streisand's music director Marvin Hamlisch, not only does Brinberg look the part, but channels the diva's voice and intonations as well. No lip synching here, which makes for a very impressive evening even without the big-name guest star promised for The Gardenia.

Brinberg has performed at Stephen Sondheim's birthday concert at the Library of Congress; at Carnegie Hall with Uptown Express; and on Broadway in the concert version of Funny Girl with Whoopi Goldberg. For tickets and reservations, call 323-467-7444 (Gardenia) or 415-885-2800 (Plush Room). For complete information, visit www.simplybarbra.com.

Steven's Untitled Rock Show is having Steven's Unsigned Band Search. To enter, visit <http://fuse.tv/unsigned> by November 30 and upload your band's homemade video. Each week the winning video will be played on Steven's Untitled Rock Show. To enter the band search, you will need to be registered to use Fuse.tv.

Sew What? Inc. announced today that it is a winner of the first annual SMB 20 Awards hosted by PC Magazine, the leading technology publication in the United States. The Awards honor the most technologically innovative small- and medium-sized businesses of the year. Sew What? Inc. is one of 20 recognized companies, which have fewer than 300 employees and have been in business for at least a year. The SMB 20 Award winners will be profiled in the October 17 issue of PC Magazine (on sale October 3) and online at go.pcmag.com/smb20.

Sew What, Inc., located in Rancho Dominguez, CA, is well-known for its dramatic theatrical drapes and fabrics used in major rock concerts, top fashion shows and other artistic staged venues. For information, contact Sew What, Inc. at 310-639-6000, or inquiries@seewhatinc.com.

MVD Visual and Sexy Intellectual have the home viewing release of two new DVD titles in the Under Review series for U.S. distribution on DVD on October 31st. AC/DC - A Classic Album Under Review: Back in Black is a critical analysis of AC/DC's most influential and successful album. The entire work is dissected track by track by a panel of experts, also offering rare footage, band interviews and live performances. The 70-minute Joy Division documentary covers the entire career of one of Manchester and post-punk's most respected bands through the eyes of a panel of experts. It charts the entire short lifespan of the group, from their origins in their days as Warsaw to the more well-known incarnation of Joy Division. To order, visit www.mvdb2b.com or contact Clint Weiler at MVD Entertainment Group, 800-888-0486 ext. 115.

Stephen Brinberg

Hard-working Terry Ilous has launched an online music library for film and TV called Loft 81. The company already has over 10,000 songs available online, mostly designed for larger independent film companies but also advertising agency placement. The company has had song placements in Man On Fire (20th Century Fox), The 6th Day (Sony Pictures), Halloween Resurrection (Miramax Pictures) and Everybody Loves Raymond (CBS) among many others. Loft 81 is in serious growth mode and would love to hear more submissions. For full placement consideration, log on to www.loft81.com.

KCRW's Music Director Nic Harcourt is now hosting music segments on A&E's Breakfast with the Arts. The monthly segment, called Second Sundays with Nic Harcourt, features interviews and live performances with up-and-coming bands, reflecting the format of his popular radio show, Morning Becomes Eclectic. Upcoming segments feature Guster on November 12 and the Pinkertones on December 10th. Breakfast with the Arts airs every Sunday from 8-10 a.m. (EST). F