NEIL YOUNG

UNDER REVIEW 1976 - 2006

AN INDEPENDENT CRITICAL ANALYSIS

By Gary Hill

I've always been a big fan of Neil Young. His songwriting and performance is always top-notch. He's one of the more diverse and creative people out there and just seems like a great guy at the same time. This DVD is part two of a pair of documentaries focusing on the artist. As with all the films in this series it's an indepth and very worthwhile production. I'd have to recommend this one to hardcore and more casual fans alike. It's got a lot going for it. The analysis of the music alone is worth the price of admission.
