

METAL FANS' DVD PLAYERS SET TO MELT!

Heavy metal music fans can circle April 15 and May 13 on their calendars as days not one, not two, not three, but four new metal-focused DVDs hit – and we do mean HIT – stores. Aural Amphetamine: Metallica and the Dawn of Thrash, Earache My Eye, and Attitude for Destruction will all be available on April 15, clearly "tax-ing day" for neighbors of those cranking up their 5.1 Surround sound home theatre systems. Then on May 13, earplugs will be issued nationwide as fans bring home Metalm<sup>a</sup>nia 2007, 260 minutes of earsplitting thunder. Complete information on all four of these forthcoming releases is available at www.mvdb2b.com.
