The Who, The Mods and the Quadrophenia Connection

Sexy Intellectual/MVD Visual, 94 minutes, $19.95

Documentary makes the claim that the Who were a force in music until drummer Keith Moon died in 1978. I dunno; I can think of a few Who songs that post-date that event. Covers the 30th anniversary of the film "Quadrophenia" and the Mod movement. No extras listed.
