A documentary tracing the movements, events and sounds of The Grateful Dead on May 22. The film also follows the involvement of Frisco's other lead play & The Holding Company, Jefferson Airplane, The Charlatans and Quicksilver. The program explores what it was that, for a while, turned San Francisco in

The film features new interviews with Grateful Dead manager Rock Scully; experimental professor, Tom 'T.C.' Constanten; Big Brother's Peter Albin; The Charlatans; publicist and official Dead biographer, Dennis McNally; Counter author and journalist (and host of 'The Grateful Dead Hour'), David Gans; I best friend of the late Ken Kesey, Ken Babbs, plus comment, criticism and Stone's Anthony De Curtis, Village Voice's Robert Christgau and Mojo's Ric includes the rarest archive in existence – live and studio footage of Grateful Frisco bands, vintage interviews, location shoots, news reports, and the music of the 'psychedelia' movement.
