Debbie Tebbs – Modern Talking

DJ Debbie Tebbs is a Montreal native who toured across Canada over the past 15 years. On this new album, the artist makes a return to basics, abandoning her turntables for her voice and synthesizers, beautifully presented in electronic arrangements. She offers us a dance electro pop sound heavily influenced by the 1980s. Debbie is also fully in the new wave of disco. For Modern Talking, she can count on the participation of Eric Speed, DJ Nerve and Marie-Luce Béland, not to mention Sylvain Taillefer who wrote several lyrics. So, Debbie Tebbs is particularly well accompanied for the first album out of her comfort zone and bringing her in a world we didn't know about her. Her tour will stop in Montreal on February 13 at the Casa Del Popolo with a surprise guest.

Quadro Nuevo – Grand Voyage

The German acoustic jazz quartet is back with a new album. It carries this time its tango on a journey through Europe and the rest of the world. The 18 tracks of Grand Voyage were in fact recorded in various locations around the world. Their atmospheric music makes us inevitably travel, and this is doubly the case with this sixth album for the Justin Time label. Bon voyage!

The Furious Swampriders – The Perc Presents New Rides of The Furious Swampriders

The Furious Swampriders is an international collective of independent artists who gather occasionally since the 1990s around Tom "The Perc" Redecker. This is the fourth part of this series, including Deborah Harry (Blondie), Nick Cave, The Raymen, Johnny Dowd (with Brian Wilson), The Walkabouts, Wovenhand and many others. Among the most famous songs presented, there is "Enjoy the Silence" by M. Walking on the Water and "Heartbreak Hotel" by Kirschbaum-Weishoff-Trio. The main problem with this heterogeneous album is that it goes in all directions with punk, folk, rockabilly, electro and more ambient music. So, you get lost so quickly, despite some good moments of creativity.
