Agent 69 Jensen – In The Sign Of Scorpio (DVD SPECS AND PURCHASE LINK) – Agent 69 Jensen Master (Ole Soltoft – winner at Sweden Fantastic Film Festival) plays a secret agent on the trail of a CIA microfilm hidden a loaf of bread, in one of five women's over night bags. In fact many secret agents are after the same bag not knowing that there are 5 different bags. Danish Intelligence Agency wants to get the microfilm to the CIA but Scorpio wants it for himself. This outrageously enticing film is filled with cat fights, lesbian scenes, sensual acts that could be featured in an erotic circus, a very kinky pool game, seductively choreographed dancing, something for those with a foot fetish and much, much more. The comedy skits are fresh, unpredictable and fabulously entertaining. One in a series of famous Danish Tegn films, movies known for their delightful blend of physical comedy and busty women who aren't afraid to shed their clothes at the drop of the hat.

In The Sign Of The Gemini (DVD SPECS AND PURCHASE LINK) – This ultra-racy comedy features a Tango Jelouise that'll have you captivated. Along with many rich and raw lesbian scenes, it's more than enough to satisfy any sexploitation fans with a sense of humor. The comedy skits are fresh, unpredictable and fabulously entertaining. One in a series of famous Danish Tegn films, movies known for their delightful blend of physical comedy and well-endowed women who aren't afraid to shed their clothes at the drop of the hat.

In The Sign Of The Lion (DVD SPECS AND PURCHASE LINK) – Two elderly sisters Rosa (Sigrid Horne-Rasmussen), continue to have their novels turned down because there is not enough romance or eroticism. Together they decide to write their memoirs of the romantic Count Johan (William Kisum) and his evil brother Count Hubert (Ib Mossin appeared in 39 films) and the things that went on at Boholms Castle. Only the Postman Rasmussen (Karl Stegger) knows of this. The novel is a best seller! The publisher Anton F. Møller (Poul Bundgaard) insists on meeting the author. Rosa and Soffy are embarrassed to say that it was them so they tell the publisher that the author is their nephew, Tony Bram (Ole Søltoft) who is out of the country at the time. This brilliant film contains erotic games, violent very well choreographed enticing dancing, peeping Toms, lesbians and threesomes. One in a series of famous Danish Tegn films, movies known for their blend of physical comedy and well-endowed women unafraid to shed their clothes at the drop of the hat.

In The Sign Of The Taurus (DVD SPECS AND PURCHASE LINK) – The will of an eccentric millionaire Count controls the future of the town. His will insists on a party the night of his death and if the town wants his millions, then a baby must be born out of wedlock under the sign of Taurus which is 9 months and 14 days from the day of his death. In this "perfect" town, all of the young ladies and gentlemen are virgins and know nothing about sex. When the town council, consisting of Pastor Frydenhøj (Karl Stegger), Mayor Felix Andersen (Preben Mahrt), Dr. Andreas Salvesen (Ole Søltoft), Police Chief Striid (Ole Monty) and the Chemist Pillesen reads the will – they agree to keep it a secret and to convince the town hussy Carola (Lone Helmer) to be the mother of the child. All of the council are upstanding citizens who know Carola intimately. Word of the will leaks out and all of the young ladies rush to Carola's house and ask for sex lessons. The boys are all taught by Carol's boyfriend Albert (Otto Brandenburg).

In The Sign Of The Virgin (DVD SPECS AND PURCHASE LINK) – The setting – a private boarding school for delinquent girls. The board of Director's have realized that the planet Venus will be aligned perfectly for all sorts of risqué behavior and it must be kept in check. They have come up with a powder that when added to water will curb all erotic desires so it must be administered to all of the girls at once by Professor Armand (Ole Søltoft). Meanwhile Professor Bomwitz (Bent Warburg) has come up with a powder that when added to water becomes the strongest aphrodisiac known to man! The two end up in the same town, bump into one another and accidentally exchange brief cases containing the powders. Professor Bomwitz gives the girls their powdered water and empties the rest into the town reservoir causing sexual chaos and mayhem in the school and the entire town! Everyone ends up at the local brothel run by Madame Gine.

In The Sign Of Sagittarius (DVD SPECS AND PURCHASE LINK) – Agent 69 Jensen Master (Ole Soltoft – winner at Sweden Fantastic Film Festival) travels from Tangiers to Moscow to Beijing, Albania and, of course, Copenhagen in this sexploitation Danish comedy. Agent 69 must retrieve the stolen Albanian rocket blueprints contained in one of four small tins containing microfilm. In fact all of the agents from all different countries are in search of the coveted microfilm. Naturally there is ample nudity, free spirited sex and several lesbian scenes to satisfy any sexual desires. The comedy skits are fresh, unpredictable and fabulously entertaining. This film is the final installment in the “Signs of the Zodiac” series of the famous Danish Tegn films, movies known for their delightful blend of physical comedy and well-endowed women who aren’t afraid to shed their clothes at the drop of the hat.
