Groundbreaking Documentary

Jackpot Records will host the Portland premiere of All My Loving as its first free midnight film Sept. 8 at Bagdad Theatre, 3702 S.E. Hawthorne Blvd. Check out the press release:

"All My Loving is Tony Palmer's groundbreaking documentary on music and its effect on pop culture in the late '60s, with previously unseen footage from The Beatles, Cream, Jimi Hendrix, The Who, Pink Floyd and many more. Produced and initially broadcast in 1968, this compelling documentary is just as pertinent and relevant as ever. We will also have the DVD on sale at the screening.

"As mentioned on Pitchfork last week, Jackpot Records was invited by Music Fest Northwest and Nike to be the exclusive carrier of free passes to three afternoon shows at Audio Cinema, 226 S.E. Madison St.:

- Sept. 6 (2:30 p.m. doors, 3:30 p.m. showtime): Cat Power, Bobby Bare Jr.
- Sept. 7 (4:30 p.m. doors, 5:30 p.m. showtime): Grizzly Bear, Deerhunter
- Sept. 8 (4:30 p.m. doors, 5:30 p.m. showtime): Ghostface Killah, The Bronx

"To gain entrance to any of these shows, stop by either Jackpot Records location [203 S.W. Ninth Ave. or 3736 S.E. Hawthorne Blvd.] no earlier than 10 a.m. on the day of the show. One pass per person. No exceptions!

"Admission to these shows will be based on a first-come, first-served basis, and MFNW wristbands will be admitted to the shows as well. We also have wristbands at both stores for $40."
