

write to the editor | email a friend | print article | Write Your Comment

Twilight of the Gods

Forty years on, '60s loom large

By Clay McNear

Published: September 13, 2007

Even those who weren't yet born in 1968 know Hendrix, The Who, Floyd, the Beatles, Cream (pictured). But try to name five "modern" acts that have even approached that sort of immortality. Nirvana? Nirvana? Nirvana? Um . . . uh . . .

Filmmaker Tony Palmer takes us back to a time when gods walked the Earth with All My Loving, his '68 time capsule featuring rare, previously unseen footage of '60s rock deities at their peak.

Mon., Sept. 17, 9 p.m.

Most Popular

Most Viewed

Most Commented

Entertainment

❖ Into the Fire

Dennis Erickson's a frightening choice to lead a college football program plagued by murder and NCAA violations

❖ Scene of the Crime

Take a tour of the scene of Phoenix's most famous murder

❖ Letters From the Issue of Thursday, September 6, 2007

❖ Revolting Development

The CityNorth project hosed Phoenix taxpayers, but don't look to city leaders for an apology

❖ Tranny Tweeter

The Bird's back, blasting Goddard's defense of tranny toilet rights, effin' with Comrade Goober, and watchin' Joe Arpaio try a little tenderness

"Most Popular" tools sponsored by:

Blogs

❖ Wicked Bitch of the West: The Repugnant's Queen of Mean, Laurie Roberts

02:27PM 09/12/07

❖ Yoda \(aka, PHX's Pat Curley of Screw Loose Change\) on Rob Breakenridge's The World Tonight

11:57PM 09/11/07

❖ Props to Our Peeps: The Arizona Music & Entertainment Hall of Fame Awards on Sept. 23

01:02AM 09/13/07