Smart, sporty and stylish

Get fresh threads with great style at The Original Penguin.

The Original Penguin by Munsingwear, which began in the 1950s and was known for the suburban leisure look, was worn by many well-known names like Arnold Palmer, Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Richard Nixon. The clothing line has evolved into trendy designs that are made for people with "great intellect, style and humor." Original Penguin will be launching a new location in the heart of the city. This Chicago location will include a shop of men's, women's and kids' fashion, and will be located at 901 N Rush Street.

Two lucky grand-prize winners will receive:

- A $250 gift certificate to the Chicago store

POP, ROCK & DROP Let the good times roll.

All you need is this

Fall in love with this definitive music documentary.

In the mid-'70s, at the suggestion of John Lennon, the celebrated journalist and film director Tony Palmer decided to document the "story of popular music" and set about interviewing and filming all the major players in the industry at that time. Originally broadcast across the world between 1976 and 1981, All You Need Is Love has neither been repeated nor commercially released on either video or DVD until now. From ragtime to rock & roll, these discs offer the chance to follow the history of popular music with this long overdue, lavish boxed set.

Three lucky grand-prize winners will receive:

- All You Need Is Love DVD boxed set

To enter, correctly answer the following question:

Q: Name an artist featured on episode two of All You Need Is Love.

(Hint: Check out seeofsound.com for more than just the answer.)
