CD Review: Bobby Collins Mr. New York

This recording was done at the Governor’s Comedy Club in Long Island, New York. Mr. New York was originally broadcast on XM Radio in January of 2008. It is filled with one hour full of hilarious stories from the master of self-deprecating humor.

Collins is on stage entertaining the audiences with his jokes about New York and what happens on their Subway. With his unique style and highly noticeable New York accent, he brings his audience in as if they are all good friends. His humor focuses on monologues derived from the experiences of everyday life spotlighting family and friends..

A Native New Yorker, Bobby Collins spent the last 15 years of his life in comedy clubs around the country. He has opened for entertainers such as Julio Iglesias, Frank Sinatra, Cher, Dolly Parton, The Pointer Sisters, and The Everly Brothers. He finally went solo on his own in Las Vegas and Atlantic City.

Collins was at one time the VP of the company we all know as Calvin Klein, making clearly a six figure salary and riding through Manhattan in limousines. He decided to give all that up to become a full time comedian stating, “what I really love to do is comedy...That’s what I do; that’s who I am; that’s my need. I love it.”

The New York Times called Bobby Collins “The most natural comedian working today.”

I love the quote on the sleeve notes:

Special Thanks to: All the bullshit people in the world where my honest comedy comes. If it weren’t for all the ignorance and small-mindedness of you people, the real people wouldn’t have anything to laugh at!

Hot Topics, In-Depth:

While BloggerNews.net is known to provide up to the minute information on a wide variety of topics, at times a more in-depth analysis of a topic that is being written about by our writers is warranted. This section of BNN provides just that – an area of the site that looks deeper into a topic, delves into the actual facts behind it, and provides more than just a summary overview of what is happening right here and now.

From something as mundane as an overview of how credit scores work, to life and death topics such as mesothelioma, we are committed to creating a growing library of information for our readers. Click below to review the topics covered so far, and check back soon as new ones are to be added regularly!
