

Videogame Theater DVD (Uproar) Comedy skits in which classic 80s video game characters (plus a naked Lara Croft) take drugs, commit suicide, and soap up in the shower could have been awful if it was done with computer animation. But if done with puppets!?! Pure fucking genius! Some is funny, some not so much, but all skits are puppet-rific! Pac Man and retarded Q-Bert's 1979 college home movies are special.
