REVIEWS : VIDEOS: WISDOM IN CHAINS, "DIE FOR US LIVE"

This is a pretty bare-bones DVD release, but given Wisdom In Chains hardcore ethic it seems to fit. I believe this came out after they had four albums beneath their grease stained boots. There are two shows on this release, eleven songs from a show in Kingston, PA and three songs from a show at the First Unitarian Church (gotta love those Unitarians, always open for new experiences...) in Philadelphia. Wisdom In Chains live is an intense experience, very old school in terms of crowd participation, presentation, stage presence, even lighting (which is minimal or non-existent... "Turn out the lights!!!" -Mad Joe Black). If you're into hardcore/Oi bands, you probably know all about Wisdom In Chains, but this was my first exposure to their brand of insanity. It doesn't get more in your face than this... the kids are totally into it, singing along and all but ambushing the band as they try to play. Along with the fourteen songs, there's also an interview with the singer, Mad Joe Black. If you dig Pennsylvania hardcore, I doubt it gets much better than this!
