The Jazz June detail upcoming CD/DVD compilation

Contributed by fuzzy. Posted by chris on Friday, August 10, 2007 at 8:00 PM (EDT)

The Jazz June have announced some details on their upcoming CD/DVD release. The CD will contain 17 live, rare and unreleased tracks from the band's career, including the first new material released since 2003. Accompanying the CD is an eleven-track bonus DVD featuring a four-camera shoot of the Jazz June's January 13th 2007 benefit show at the North Star in Philadelphia. Proceeds from the sales of this CD / DVD combo will go to the Adam Gerherdt fund, named their long time friend and dedicated roadie who has developed a severe form of brain cancer.

The compilation hits stores on September 18 via MVD.

Bonus Materials:

- Bonus Footage: Tour footage from 1998 with Gameface - including van antics, performances, weird shit
- Bonus Footage: Tour footage from 2000 with Elliot - including van antics, performances, weird shit
- Bonus DVD Tracks include: Low End Automatic, Viva La Speed Metal, The Possibilities Were Endless, Scars to Prove It, The Medicine, Better Off Without Air, Rich Kid Shakedown, Sabbath Song, At the Artist's Leisure, When the Drums Kick In, When in Rome
- Bonus Footage: interview with Andrew Low, Bryan Gassler, and Dan O'neil speaking about past present, and future, and their friend Adam Gerherdt

I fucking love this band. Saw them with both Gameface and Elliott. I'm glad they left most of the "better off.." era songs off the comp.
