THE TWELFTH SEASON
(5DVD)

Paramount Home Ent.

NCIS: Los Angeles is a drama about the high-stakes world of a division of NCIS that is charged with apprehending dangerous and elusive criminals, who pose a threat to the nation's security. By assuming false identities and utilizing the most advanced technology, this team of highly trained agents goes deep undercover, putting their lives on the line in the field to bring down their targets. Special Agent "G" Callen (Chris O'Donnell) is a chameleon, who transforms himself into whomever he needs to be to infiltrate the criminal underworld. His partner is Special Agent Sam Hanna (LL Cool J), a former U.S. Navy SEAL who has seen action in both Afghanistan and Iraq. The team includes the all-knowing Henrietta "Hetty" Lange, who handles the politics of the job and is tasked with providing everything from micro-surveillance cameras to cars for the team; Special Agent Kensi Blye, the exceptionally bright daughter of a slain Marine who lives for the adrenaline rush that comes with undercover work; Marty Deeks, a seasoned LAPD undercover detective who was recruited to the team by Hetty; tech operator Eric Beale, who has mastered every gadget and computer in the Ops Center; intelligence analyst Nell Jones, who won the team's respect with her spot-on assessments and her shrewd insights; Fatima Namazi, a Middle East specialist and a razor-sharp cryptologist; and former FBI Agent Devin Rountree, whose unique upbringing, discipline and athletic ability are a welcome addition to the team. Armed with the latest in high-tech gear and sent regularly into life-threatening situations, this tight-knit unit relies on each other to do what is necessary to protect national interests. Eighteen episodes and the evidence is clear: there's not threat that our team can't survive.

A PLACE IN THE SUN +
NASHVILLE (Blu-ray)
Paramount Home Ent.

A Place in the Sun features Director George Stevens' masterwork A Place in the Sun, which won six Academy Awards and is widely considered one of the finest works of America cinema. In celebration of its 70th anniversary, the film, an unforgettable story of ambition, passion, and betrayal is presented on Blu-ray. Montgomery Clift stars as George Eastman, a young man determined to win a place in respectable society and the heart of a beautiful socialite (Elizabeth Taylor). Shelley Winters is the factory girl whose dark secret threatens Eastman's professional and romantic prospects. This adaptation of Theodore Dreiser's 'An American Tragedy,' was based on a notorious crime tale.

Nashville follows 24 unique characters through 5 days in the country music capital. Robert Altman's Oscar-winning epic presents a completely textured portrayal (and critique) of America's obsession with celebrity and power. Among the various stars, aspirants, hangers-on, observers, and media folk, are a politically ambitious country icon and his fragile star protégée, a self-absorbed rock star who woos a wife with dreams of stardom, and a campaign guru who is trying to organize a concert rally for an unseen presidential candidate. An essential of '70s cinema, this newly remastered Blu-ray looks better than ever. Nashville' also boasts a phenomenal ensemble cast.

CHARIOTS OF THE GODS:
50th ANNIVERSARY
(Blu-ray)
VCI Entertainment

A groundbreaking documentary based on Erich von Daniken's book purporting to prove that throughout history, aliens have visited Earth. "Fifty million stars in our galaxy have the potential of supporting life forms capable of traveling to other planets," says world-renowned authority von Daniken, whose film version of his best-selling book 'Chariots of the Gods,' gives stunning visual proof that some form of life from outer space landed on Earth centuries ago. It took five years for von Daniken to document, on film, the physical evidence of visits by galactic travelers who came to Earth. Just what they did her and the influences they left behind is the core of the film. In search of basic truths, the film takes the viewer into the far reaches of underground caves and tombs, and to the tops of desolate mountains on every major continent to show the evidence von Daniken has been collecting. Although this controversial film may provide the answers to age-old mysteries, it may be the beginning of an entirely new set of questions.

FLYING BLUE ANGELS IN THE SKY

On Monday morning, August 30th, I had just walked out of my home and was headed to my car when I heard this incredible noise in the sky. Then, looking up I saw a squadron of Blue Angels in formation headed in the direction of Charlestown where they were going to salute the USS Constitution over at the Charlestown Navy Yard. After all the recent bad news coming out of Afghanistan, it was a sight to be seen and gave me hope that America can survive anything thrown at it.

I was talking with a friend when those fighter jets passed by and I told her, "Hey, at least Biden didn't hand over the Blue Angels to the Taliban, huh?" She and I both laughed but we both knew that my comment was made to be funny.

BLUE ICE CREAM MATTERS!

I was over at Constitution, (aka Shea's) Beach in East Boston recently for a beach event and the Boston Police Ice Cream Truck showed up and you should have seen the mad dash for free ice cream.

Then, I heard someone calling me and it was the driver, Officer Lauren Woods, a long time friend of mine. I didn't even know she had transferred to the Bureau of Community Engagement. Her cruiser was replaced by an ice cream truck.

As a former police officer, I must admit ice cream trucks are really a great idea. It is engaging with the community in such a positive way. Who's against ice cream? I don't know if the truck has anything for those lactose intolerant but if they don't, they should.

Fostering positive encounters with folks, especially kids and young people is always a good thing. Also, you can bet that lots of adults who saw this truck at the beach that day ran for an ice cream too.

I hear that Lauren is even trying to find a way to hook up a great music playlist to the truck's radio. If anyone can do that, she can. After all, who wants that terrible Frosty's sounding music that kills your ears?

Final note, you gotta try the ice cream sandwiches. I get tired of Hoodies after a while. It's good to have variety.

BIRTHDAY
REMEMBRANCES

Billy Preston, what a voice he had! He would have been 75 years old on September 2nd. He passed away much too soon back in 2006 ... On a happier note, Archie Bell from Archie Bell & the Drells just had his birthday on September 1st when he turned 77 years old. When you think of his band, don't you remember "Tighten Up," his smash hit from 1968?
