Nils Lofgren

“Old School”

Vision Music Inc.

Produced by: Nils Lofgren, Brian Christian

Tracks: 12

Our Score: 2 out of 5 stars

“Old School” is the newest solo release from Neil Young/E Street Band guitarist Nils Lofgren. The album is the being released via Vision Music Inc. and features 12 new original songs produced by Nils Lofgren and Brian Christian. As the follow up to Lofgren’s 2008 solo album titled “The Loner”,

"Old School" seems to have a little bit of something for everyone. Though I found the album to be a touch different from his work with Bruce Springsteen this proved not to be a bad thing.

The album features a variety of styles such as rock; blues and country which I feel only broaden the overall appeal of this album. Each song showcased not only Lofgren's guitar playing but also his singing. Tracks like "60 Is the New 18" and "Ain't Too Many of Us Left" were definite standouts as they were more along the lines of Nils more familiar works. Those looking for a Springsteen album minus the Springsteen will not find it here. Lofgren shines with his own unique style and "Old School" is a perfect example of that style.
