CD Review: Magic Mushroom Band – Singles and Rarities

February 3rd, 2008 by Simon Barrett

Politics Breeds Hypocrites.
The Real Cover Story?
Newsweek

Coming to a CD by a band with such a catchy name? As to the genre of the music, it is exactly what you would expect.

Sometimes I feel more like a 'cold case' investigator than a reviewer, and that was certainly the case with this CD. As far as I can tell the Magic Mushroom Band was active between 1982 and 1995. I think the band members were Gary Masters (aka Gary Moonshot, guitar), Kim Russell (Kim Oz, vocals) and Gary Twining Lead Guitar. There are two other members: Gary Baku (bass) and Jim Lacey (drums) rounded out this interesting group officially billed as 'Psychedelic Space Pop', which is a new one!

Who's the biggest enemy in politics?
Nancy Pelosi? Rudy Giuliani? Bill Clinton?
Obama? McCain?
Vitter? Al Gore? Al Franken?

While they do not have that early sound of the Dave Brock Hawkwind tradition, they do have it in all. The CD is part original material and part covers. Of the covers the absolute best is Pink Floyd's early opus, 'Set the controls for the Heart of the Sun', which they just 'nail'!

The political boogymen (top 10) famous have something new to worry about. Fill up on hypocrisy at Duckcover.com.

I find a lot of today's music to be boring (top 10), obnoxious (rap), or mind numbing (remixes), so I think an album is just the ticket.

My message to the Magic Mushroom Band, is simple, put down the hallucinogens for a while and press your time into the studio. It is time for a shake up in the music world, and you guys could do it.
