KEVIN WOOD & FROM THE NORTH/Monument (Wammy Box Records) This was apparently some old stuff from like 1990 that is finally coming out on CD now. This is old grunge stuff and it wasn't too bad, but nothing that had me doing backflips. The music of course is very heavy and dark and sort of like Alice in Chains in some ways, which isn't a bad thing. The production is cool and the more I listen to this the better it got as it was something fresh and was dark and eerie and I love the singer on this as well. A very cool and different kind of thing here.
