

<http://getexposedmusic.blogspot.com/2009/08/review-rundown-evans-blue-gothkill-rell.html>

Gothkill (Wild Eye Releasing): With one viewing of horror/comedy Gothkill, it's easy to see why this is a revered underground cult -type movie. The movie features a number of known performance artists including Flambeaux, Erica Giovinazzo, Eve Blackwater, Anastasia Andino, Tom "Misfit" Velez and Michael Day. While Mistress Juliya appears for more a cameo than anything, she adds something special to the movie in her portrayal of a devil girl, and Flambeaux is excellent in the lead role of banished and executed former priest Nicholas Dread. The plot is pretty transparent and predictable but that all adds to the charm and fun of the movie itself, one that has spawned countless midnight showings and fan participation. If you are looking for a low budget horror movie that will make you laugh more than cringe, grab a copy of Gothkill.

www.gothkill.com

Grade: C