

"Magic." Anthony Hopkins is Corky, a painfully shy, failed magician who finds overnight success as a ventriloquist. His brash, foul-mouthed dummy, Fats, becomes a huge nightclub hit. With his star on the rise, talent agent Ben Greene (Burgess Meredith) arranges an important shot at national TV. But the pressure of failing the network's required physical sends Corky into a panic. With Fats in tow, he flees the city to a nearly-deserted resort in the Catskills run by the love of his youth, Peggy Ann Snow (Ann Margret). Peg's spent years trapped in a loveless marriage with her high-school sweetheart, Duke. In Corky, she sees the chance for a loving relationship and accepts an offer to run away with him. After they make love, Corky confides to Fats that he may leave show business altogether. Fats becomes furious and lashes out at him, playing on his guilt and insecurity. Now under Fats' control, Corky is manipulated into a series of violent and unexpected confrontations.

"Cut Shorts- Short Films of Dave Markey." This compilation represents 30 years of work from independent filmmaker David Markey. From his beginnings as a pre-teen experimental film auteur to his music videos for major labels, Cut Shorts displays

Markeys unique and askewed view. Markey employs a frenetic Documentary-style approach mixed with punk fiction on the dime. He feverishly produced these backyard films much like the Do-It-Yourself attitude found in punk zines and bands. Featuring Thurston Moore, Kim Gordon, Jordan & Jennifer Schwartz, & Sofia Coppola Music by Devo, Ciccone Youth, Sonic Youth, The Shaggs, The Posies, Abby Travis & others.

"Puppets Who Kill- The Complete Second Series." Yes, if the cult-hit Season One DVD wasn't proof enough then Season Two should erase any reasonable doubts - Puppets Who Kill is the nastiest little show around. The strangely demented antics of Buttons, Rocko, Cuddles and Bill return to torment Dan Redican, the social worker under siege at the half-way house he manages for the fearsome foursome, all of whom are incorrigible sociopaths. How's this for a heart-warming episode: Bill hires a litigator to sue the families of the people he's murdered...for emotional damages. And on it goes, thirteen episodes as far away from Jim Henson as you can get featuring everything from necrophilia to serial killing. For fun.
