LILLIAN AXE/Self Titled (Metal Mind Productions) This is the re-release of this bands debut release from many moons ago. You know this is a really kick ass release of hair metal or whatever you want to call it. This band has some really good to strong songs on this and it was just kick ass rock n roll in my opinion with a pinch of metal to it. The singer had a strong voice and fit the music rather well. I don't remember a lot about this band I had seen the name around, but this is a very strong re-release and I if your into rock n roll with strong hooks and catchy tunes, you can't do much better than this.
