

Air War: Super Fighters Vol. 1

Over 90 min of rarely before seen interviews, documentaries, war footage and more from private libraries of veterans from WWII. This action packed and stunning DVD contains the following programs: "P-51 Fury of the Mustangs" - Perhaps no plane flown during WWII was more widely recognized or respected than the P-51 Mustang. "Fury of the Mustangs" offers in rich detail the history and development of this important aircraft. This film features rare footage from factory production to aerial combat. "The Super Plane that Hitler Wasted" - Featuring footage of the Me 262 as well as fascinating interviews with some of WWII's greatest aviators such as Galland, Yeager and Steinhoff. Also includes exotic German planes such as the He-178, Arado 234, V-1, V-2, Gotha GO-229 flying wing, Me P-1101 and He-162. "Outstanding Combat Footage of WWII" - During WW2 the U.S. military sent combat cameramen into the field to document the war. This film is a compilation assembled by the US Navy that is essentially a "greatest hits" of the Pacific War. Lot's of ships getting hit by Kamikaze's as well as numerous Japanese planes being shot out of the sky. "Reconnaissance Mission" - This short film follows the journey of a reconnaissance bomber based on Guadalcanal. Jumped by Japanese fighters, the heroic crew fights them off to complete their mission and ear the Medal of Honor.
