

SO MANY THINGS

THE EUROPEAN TOUR 1961

THE JOHN COLTRANE QUINTET

A unique 4-CD set bringing together in one collection for the first time a series of 'live' recordings made during John Coltrane's European tour in 1961 with his quintet, featuring the formidable multi-instrumentalist Eric Dolphy, which have previously only been patchily available. The performances in Paris, Copenhagen, Helsinki and Stockholm present Coltrane and the band in full flight taking audiences to the cutting edge of jazz, with many extraordinary solos by Coltrane and Dolphy. It's a must for jazz collectors.
