

JACKSON UNITED

HARMONY AND DISSIDENCE

NORTH AMERICAN RELEASE DATE: SEPTEMBER 2, 2008

JACKSON UNITED "HARMONY AND DISSIDENCE":

Formed by in 2004 by current Foo Fighters / Me First and the Gimme Gimmes guitarist Chris Shiflett, Jackson United features guitarist Doug Sangalang, bassist Scott Shiflett, of Face to Face fame and drummer Joe Kid of Mighty Mighty Bosstones (so new, in fact, that he didn't play on the album). Backed by the hard hitting beat of Foo Fighter bandmates Dave Grohl (Nirvana) and Taylor Hawkins, who shared drumming duties on the Harmony And Dissidence sessions, Jackson United deliver fast-paced, guitar driven anthems reminiscent of punk's glory days ala The Clash and Stiff Little Fingers, not to mention a great cover of Billy Bragg's "Help Save The Youth of America."

Influential Los Angeles radio station KROQ has spun the lead track "21st Century Fight Song" as a Catch of the Day, other major stations have followed suit, a full blown radio promotion via AAM will start in August. Look for Jackson United tour dates with Flogging Molly later this year.
