Window on Your Present takes place in a world where color and love do not exist. The people who live in this dreary world have nothing to live for and often end up taking their own lives. However, two unlikely lovers discover that there is something else that is special that exists outside of their horrid world. Window on Your Present remains a time capsule into the No-Wave New York art films of the 80's.

Window on Your Present is Cinqué Lee's first feature film, which he wrote and directed in 1988. Lee is no stranger to film appearing in Jim Jarmusch's Mystery Train, Coffee & Cigarettes, and was also co-writer & co-producer of his brother's (Spike Lee) Crooklyn. Window On Your Present makes its debut on DVD October 25th 2011. Filmed with the help of his family, sister Joie Lee acting in the film, and acclaimed jazz bassist father Bill Lee provided the soundtrack. Bill Lee has also provided music to brother's Spike Lee's films Do The Right Thing, and Crooklyn. Window On Your Present makes its debut on DVD October 25th 2011.
