With Friends Like These focuses on the trials, loves and tribulations of fictional character Cleo Taylor (25) as she runs a Miami beauty salon named Hair We Are. When we first meet Cleo she is the owner of one of Miami's top modeling agencies. With beauty, money and brains, she seems to have it all going for her. On what turns out to be a nightmare morning, Cleo awakens to find her house completely stripped of everything by the IRS. An agent explains to a stunned Cleo, that her longtime boyfriend/partner ran their agency into the ground by embezzling and not filing any taxes. With nowhere to go, Cleo turns to her two childhood friends for help- Suzanne Good (24) a conservative, Caucasian and legal assistant, and Kylie Davis (25) a dizzy and gorgeous Dominican/Black model. Just as everything is ripped away from Cleo, a miracle happens just as quickly. Cleo learns that her distant Aunt Stephanie has died and left her a beauty salon in need of a lot of work. Waiting in the wings to take over her salon is a former nemesis of Cleo's aunt, Naomi Gladstone. Owner of a chain of salons targeted toward African-American Women, Naomi (40) is curvy, sassy and comes with lots of attitude and insults toward Cleo. But Cleo will not give up that easily. With the help of her friends, her aunt's ghost, a former stripper hairstylist and a diva stylist named Franklin, Cleo is ready to take on Naomi and the world in her new venture.
