On 'Deftones: Death by Decibels' we go behind the music to discover what it took for this unlikely group of friends from America's west coast to simultaneously create a new musical movement and conquer an entire generation of youths.

Packed with in-depth interviews and featuring exclusive and previously unseen film footage, this documentary film takes you where the cameras never previously preyed to achieve an uncensored look at a truly legendary band.

The DVD includes revealing information and previously unknown info on the band from those close to them including the original band manager, roadies and one time housemate and collaborators with the band.
