The legends and myths surrounding the early life and career of Bob Dylan are so ingrained in the fabric of Rock music's history that getting to the truth is no mean feat. But that's exactly what the producers and directors of this incredible film have achieved.

Includes contributions from; several friends from school, university and the late 50's local Minnesota folk scene, Bob's first music teacher, Greenwich Village colleagues, Martin Carthy [Dylan played with Carthy during his first visit to the UK in 1963], the legendary folk singer and friend of Dylan, Spider John Koerner [never previously spoken on film about Bob], Ed Ball [the 85 year old manager of Woody Guthrie], Clinton Heylin [esteemed Dylan biographer - author of the 100,000 selling Man Behind The Shades], Derek Barker [Editor of the largest circulation fanzine in the world ISIS], C P Lee [Dylan historian and author of several books on BD] and many others. Many rare photographs never seen before, from private archives, are also included as is rare Dylan film footage.
