With his popularity consistently growing on what seems like a weekly basis, to say 'there's no stopping EMINEM' could be considered this season's most tepid understatement. On EMINEM: The Glory Years - part documentary, part critical review, all fascinating insight - the truth is revealed by the likes of EMINEM's first manager, esteemed writers from Rolling Stone, NME, Uncut and Spin, family members and close friends and many more who know, work with, love or despise him. Previously unseen photographs from private collections and the rarest film footage ever released complete a film that will appeal to all those with an interest, from the EMINEM mega fan to the casual observer.
