"Poetic, sophisticated, expressive, unrivalled creativity"

Armia is a very unique band on Polish music scene that was founded in 1984. Their musical is the combination of Tomasz Budzynski's poetry and sophisticated, expressive music, which contains elements of hardcore, folk or even classical music. The use of instruments untypical for rock music (like French horn, flute, cello, violin or didgeridoo) makes the band's position on the music scene absolutely unrivalled, and Armia remains one of the most original bands, creating music that cannot be filed under any genre.

This DVD features a thrilling 10-song TV performance based on Triodante. The DVD also includes band interviews, bonus videos and other special features.

Track List: Dehumaniser, Ashes, Motionless, A Place Under The Sun, Ping, Spirit and Flesh, The Vespering Hymn, The Song of Numbers, The Feast of the Swallow, Commence As I Have Finished

Bonus video:

"Dehumaniser" video clip, "Trzy bajki" video clip
