Geno was born in Evansville, Louisiana in the 1940's. He joined the American Armed Forces as a GI and was stationed in England. He never went home. 'Emotionally I'm English. Those days in the 60's were some of the happiest days of my life' Geno made a swift and natural progression from jumping on stages at dances as a young GI, to forming the 'Ram Jam Band' and touring with Georgie Fame, Shane Fenton, Rod Stewart, Long John Baldry and Jimi Hendrix (who was Geno's support act!).

Geno is a man born to the stage and his legendary live performances have inspired many bands including Dexy's Midnight Runners, who topped the charts with their personal tribute 'Geno'. This DVD, recorded live at the Thameside Theatre, London, captures a legend on-stage.
