This look at the Bay Area underground Hip Hop scene features live footage from Jahi, Attik, Krushadelic, Zion I, Ise Lyfe and Pro. Also included as part of the package is a 28 page booklet reviewing the history of Bay Area Hip Hop.

"The Bay Area has historically been a place where Black people went to be independent politically and economically, at least since the beginning of World War II, when a large migration of former sharecroppers from the South came to the West looking to get off the plantations and into the industrial factory jobs and in the shipyards. That is how the Black neighborhoods of West Oakland, Richmond and Hunter's Point were established.

Although the Bay is seen as one united scene by outsiders, there are different stories to tell about how the different areas came to be respected Bay Area Representatives in the international music industry.

This history is one of the best kept secrets in Hip Hop ourstory."
