Chris Barber

As We Like It

“A terrific performance,” according to Blues Matters Magazine. Filmed live in-front of a studio audience.

AS WE LIKE IT presents the Jazz & Blues legend Chris Barber in an exclusive one night only performance, filmed live in-front of an invited studio audience at Classic T Stage, Shepperton Film Studios. This is classic Chris Barber, an absolute icon in the world of Jazz, alongside his full eleven-piece band performing hit tracks such as Petite Fleur, numbers from the critically acclaimed 2007 album Can't Stop Now, plus a host of material from the like of Miles Davis, Duke Ellington, Sonny Terry & Brownie McGhee and the Dorsey Brothers in what Blues Matters Magazine described as "a terrific performance". Featuring the Big Chris Barber Band and a special guest appearance from Andy Fairweather-Low on 'Worried Man Blues', 'Lay My Burden Down' and 'Will The Circle Be Unbroken'.

“The importance of these tours to the British blues, and the eventual transatlantic exchange courtesy of the Stones, Yardbirds et al, shouldn't be underestimated”
 —Mojo, December 2007

“The Reading Festival, The Marquee Club, the dawn of British Blues, Skiffle and the entire pop and rock scene of the 60's and beyond are primarily down to one man: Chris Barber”
 —Record Collector, February 2008
