

BLOWSIGHT

Life & Death

Sweden has always been a guarantee for the export of epic pop melodies and infamous rock bands; however... this is rarely combined in one package. BLOWSIGHT have internalized the essence of both, and united them to create an extremely amazing, unique band with epic potential for success. BLOWSIGHT's explosive mixture of infectious energy and musical maturity is fresh, new and sure to blast the roof off of every stage the band sets their feet upon.

"Blowsight is like a big melting pot of everyone's favorite music" states Nick Red, singer/guitarist for the quintet from Stockholm, Sweden. "it doesn't matter if it's influenced by Metallica, Queen, Lady Gaga, Testament, or My Chemical Romance... everything fits together", and no other quote could describe their music more adequately either. Nick continues, "Our focus is to break down the barriers by bringing different genres together whose fans would openly fight each other out in the streets". They've tagged this combination PopMetalPunk, which fits them like a glove. True to their motto- "we play what we want".
