SUMMARY

This 65-minute DVD is a strange hybrid of road movie, ghost story and kinky sex movie. It the story of an old friend, Tsutomu, who pays a visit to a couple, then disappears after one night. He leaves behind a mobile phone and the couple sets out to find him in order to return it.

Along the way they meet up with another couple enjoying an outdoor sex session with a video camera. The four of them continue the journey to find Tsutomu.

When they arrive at his home, his parents inform them that he was killed in an accident some years previously. What happens next is both bizarre and strangely heart warming as the four friends play a baseball game with the ghost of Tsutomu and thus seal their friendships for good as all of them discover more about themselves and each other.

Amongst the weirdest of the Pink Cinema movie genre, Sex Friend Nurezakari still manages to pack in plenty of sizzling sex - definitely one for the broader minded viewer.
